The image shows a handwriting practice sheet for the hiragana character 'て' (te). It features a central illustration of a right hand with pink lines connecting it to five vertical columns of writing boxes. From left to right, the columns are labeled: 'こゆび' (index finger), 'くすりゆび' (middle finger), 'なかゆび' (ring finger), 'ひとさしゆび' (index finger), and 'おやゆび' (thumb). Each column contains a vertical stack of boxes for writing. The boxes are divided into four horizontal sections by solid lines, and each section is further divided into two vertical sections by a dashed line. A small square box labeled 'て' is positioned above the 'おやゆび' column. At the bottom right, there is a large empty rectangular box for writing the name 'なまえ' (name), and a smaller box for the date 'がつ' (month) and 'にち' (day).
